JUBILEE VIBES

April - June 2025

Congregation of Jesus Mary and Joseph
Hyderabad Province

FOREWORD

We are pleased to present Jubilee Vibes, from April to July a special edition celebrating the grace-filled moments of our Jubilee Year. This magazine highlights the experiences, reflections, and inspirations shared by individual Sisters over the months of April, June and July 2025.

Inside, you will find:

- Articles and reflections on Sisters' journey of faith and service
- Inspirational stories and personal testimonies
- Photos and cherished memories from our Jubilee activies.

This booklet -2 seeks to:

- Share the joy and gratitude of our Jubilee Year with our community and beyond
- Inspire and encourage our Sisters to continue their journey of faith and loving service

The Jubilee Vibes booklet -2 will be shared with all the members of our communities, as well as with other Provinces and the Generalate. We warmly encourage all our Sisters to read this special edition, reflect on its message, and share their insights with one another.

May this Jubilee Vibes booklet-2 be a source of joy, inspiration, and renewed commitment for each of us as we continue to walk together as Pilgrimps of Hope.

Spiritual Fruits of the Jubilee Year 2025

The Jubilee Year is a sacred time of grace and spiritual renewal. It offers the faithful an opportunity for reconciliation, deeper prayer, and a revived relationship with God. At its heart, the Jubilee aims to strengthen the Church as the Body of Christ and inspire believers to begin anew freed from past sins, open to God's mercy.

This holy year also encourages acts of mercy both corporal and spiritual such as supporting the poor, caring for orphans, helping the homeless, and showing compassion to the suffering. Pilgrimages to Jubilee shrines, especially in Rome or other designated places, offer a spiritual journey of reflection, prayer, and renewal through the Sacraments of Confession and the Eucharist.

Pope Francis calls Christians "pilgrims of hope", those who bring light into darkness, healing into pain, and unity where division exists. As pilgrims, we walk in faith, never static, but always moving forward toward God's promise.

To be a pilgrim of hope is to:

Trust in God's mercy, even in suffering
Embrace others with compassion and solidarity
Seek peace in a fragmented world
Walk together as one human family

Inspired by the Jubilee call, our community committed to supporting five poor and marginalized families with food grains for 12 months. On the 29th of each month, these families—often caring for the sick—come joyfully to receive this act of mercy. Listening to their stories has become a moment of shared humanity and grace for us.

Offering a Listening Ear: We spend time with individuals who come to the church burdened with sorrow. By listening attentively, we offer them encouragement and the hope to carry on.

Medical Assistance with Compassion: We provide free or discounted medical care to the financially weak, reminding them that they are seen, loved, and cared for.

Support for Vulnerable Students: Children with single parents are given special consideration with reduced school and boarding fees. More importantly, we spend time with them weekly, offering companionship and hope for a brighter future.

A Journey Worth Taking: As we journey through the Jubilee Year 2025, let us live as true pilgrims of hope—not only walking toward sacred places, but embracing a sacred way of life. In the silence of prayer, in the pain of others, and in the joy of giving, may we encounter God anew. Let this Jubilee not pass us by. Let it be the year we rediscover joy, renew our mission, and revive our hope.

When Compassion Becomes Healing

How a simple act of care brought strength and joy to someone in need

In a world full of business and noise, it's often the quiet acts of kindness that speak the loudest. One such moment unfolded recently when the JMJ SSS team reached out to a member of the transgender community in Hyderabad—a visit that became more than just charity. It became healing.

On May 30th, the JMJ SSS team had planned a gathering with transgender individuals to share not just time and conversation, but also nutritional provision kits—especially for those living with HIV, who face ongoing health and nutritional challenges. Though the meeting was sadly cancelled due to unforeseen reasons, the food kits were redirected through Darpan Foundation, reaching the community members in need.
But something more personal, more powerful, awaited me.

While still in the hospital recovering from gallbladder stone surgery, a transgender man informed us of his condition. He shared that he was extremely weak, had no support around him, and was in urgent need of nutritional care. His voice was faint, yet his cry for help was clear.

Our team responded without delay. After his discharge from the hospital, we visited him at his residence, bringing along essential food items and supplements to support his healing. What we encountered during that visit was truly humbling.

He was lying silently, frail and withdrawn. But as we sat with him, listened, and offered our support, something began to change. He began to speak again, slowly at first, then with more energy. His eyes lit up. He smiled. The atmosphere shifted—from silence to life, from isolation to connection.

"When I was sick, you visited me. When I was lonely, you consoled me." These sacred words came alive in front of us. In that moment, compassion became more than a gesture—it became healing. It brought warmth to a cold situation, strength to a weakened spirit, and dignity to a forgotten soul. For him, it was a sign that he was not alone. For us, it was a reminder of why we serve.

This encounter reminded us that healing doesn't always come from medicine. Sometimes, it comes from presence, from listening, from simply showing someone that they are seen and valued. Both the giver and the receiver were transformed that day. It was a moment of shared humanity.

As JMJ SSS, we thank God for the privilege to step into this person's life with love. These are the stories that sustain our mission—stories where compassion becomes healing, and where hearts are forever touched. Let us continue to be that light, that knock on the door, that presence that says,
"You are not alone. We are with you."

The Jubilee Year of Hope

The Jubilee Year of Hope is not just an event; it's an invitation. It is an open door for all of us to step into a time of grace and profound renewal. Let us not simply observe this year, but truly embrace it as a call to action for our hearts and our communities.

This year is a time to...

- Unleash the Power of Forgiveness: Let go of grudges that have held you captive. Embrace the sacrament of reconciliation, not as a chore, but as an opportunity for true inner freedom. Forgiveness is a gift you give to yourself, and in doing so, you become a vessel of God's boundless mercy for others.
- Walk with a Pilgrim's Heart: Whether you journey to a holy site or simply walk to your local church, see every step as an act of faith. A pilgrim's heart is one that is open, humble, and ready to be transformed. Let every prayer you offer be a step forward in your spiritual journey, drawing you closer to God.
- Illuminate the World with Service: The true test of our faith is in how we love our neighbor. This Jubilee, find one small way to serve. Share a meal with someone in need, offer a listening ear to the lonely, or simply plant a seed in a community garden. Your small act of kindness can become a beacon of hope, showing others that love is not just a word, but a living, breathing force.
- Build a Legacy of Hope: Our shared faith is a gift passed down through generations. Let this Jubilee inspire you to become a bridge for others. Share your faith story with a child, engage in dialogue with an elder, or simply offer a prayer for those who will come after us. Your commitment today will inspire a future rooted in love, justice, and compassion.

This Jubilee Year is a sacred opportunity. Let us seize it with courage and joy, and in doing so, become true Pilgrims of Hope who radiate grace, unity, and unwavering faith.

Harvest of Generosity

"A Journey of Faith and Service: Distributing Food to the Poor in the Slums During the Jubilee Year"

The Jubilee Year, a time of spiritual renewal and reflection, provided me with a unique opportunity to live out my faith by serving the poor in a slum area. Distributing food to those in need was a humbling experience that deepened my understanding of compassion, empathy, and the importance of serving others.

As I navigated the narrow alleys and makeshift homes of the slum, I was struck by the resilience and determination of the people living there. Despite facing numerous challenges, they welcomed me with open hearts and grateful smiles. The act of distributing food was not just about providing sustenance; it was about showing love, care, and dignity to those who often feel overlooked.

The Jubilee Year's theme, "Pilgrims of Hope," resonated deeply with me as I served the poor. I witnessed firsthand the hope and dignity that emerged in the faces of those I served. This experience reminded me that faith is not just about words, but about actions that bring hope and comfort to those in need.

Through this experience, I learned the value of selflessness, compassion, and empathy. I realized that serving others is not just about providing material goods, but about showing love and care. This experience challenged me to continue serving others with humility and empathy.

My experience distributing food to the poor in the slums during the Jubilee Year was a profound reminder of the power of love, compassion, and service. It deepened my faith and inspired me to continue serving others, spreading hope, and bringing dignity to those in need.

Nourishing Hope Through Prayer and Adoration

In his message for the 61st World Day of Prayer for Vocations, on the theme ‘Called to sow hope and build peace’, the Holy Father Francis urges the faithful to take advantage of the favorable moment offered by the current ‘Year of Prayer’ in preparation for the Holy Year to rediscover their vocation and be pilgrims of hope and builders of peace.

“In the present historical moment, the common path is the one which leads us all towards the Jubilee of 2025. We walk as pilgrims of hope towards the Holy Year, because in the rediscovery of our own vocation and by putting into effect the different gifts of the Spirit, we can be bearers and witnesses of Jesus' dream: to form a single family, united in the love of God and held together in bonds of charity, sharing and brotherhood" said the Pope.

“During this year 2024, dedicated specifically to prayer in preparation for the Jubilee, we are called to rediscover the priceless gift of being able to dialogue with the Lord, heart to heart, thus becoming pilgrims of hope, because ‘prayer is the first strength of hope. You pray and your hope grows, it takes a step forward. I would say that prayer opens the door to hope. Hope is always there, but with my prayer I open the door to it.’” (Catechesis, 20 May 2020)

Christians, says Pope Francis, should cultivate a gaze filled with hope. Despite failures and setbacks, "we are set on a journey to discover the love of God and, at the same time, to discover ourselves".

So no one must feel excluded from this call, everyone must have the courage to get involved, in caring for those around us and for the environment we live in. “Let us get up, therefore, and set out as pilgrims of hope, because, just as Mary did with Saint Elizabeth, we too can bring news of joy, generate new life and be artisans of brotherhood and peace.”

My personal experience being with Jesus at adoration:-

It’s wonderful movement to be with God, just by being with him gives lot of grace which enabled me to sing praises to him has healed me and helped to be person of others. Personal Prayer has helped me to help and motivate others to take time to be with God ,tell him all that concerns them, so staff of our hospital regularly take time to take part at adoration daily, to pray for one self and others .its happy joyful active participation of our employeesto take part of celebration s that occur. We Sisters all of us spend in prayer reading word of God ,recite psalms, sing songs for a hour daily.Sick patients brought in the wheel chairs to the chapel to spend some time with God. Patients attenders ask our prayers to pray for sickbelieving in God sees their physical pain and heals them completely. . This enabled me to bring peace and unity among us.

"Seekers of a Brighter Tomorrow in the Year of Jubilee"

"You shall hallow the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you." — Leviticus 25:10

Dear Sisters and Friends,

As we celebrate the Jubilee Year, we are invited to walk as Pilgrims of Hope — hearts open, spirits renewed, and eyes fixed on God's promises. This sacred time is a gift — a moment of grace to seek healing, renewal, and deeper communion with one another and with God.

We are called to be:

- Seekers of Forgiveness — embracing reconciliation and the healing of broken relationships.
- Seekers of Justice — standing in solidarity with the poor, the oppressed, and the voiceless.
- Seekers of Freedom — breaking the chains of sin, debt, and division.
- Seekers of Light — walking in the radiance of Christ, who illuminates our path.
- Seekers of Joy — celebrating God's faithfulness and trusting in His divine providence.

Let us journey together — not burdened by the past, but renewed by the Spirit, confident in the Gospel, and united in purpose. May this Jubilee be a time of deep grace for each of us and for the world we serve.

Feeding Souls, Nourishing Lives: A Jubilee of Compassion

As part of our church's blessed observance of the Year of Jubilee, we are reminded of God's call to justice, mercy, and generosity. This year, our congregation has committed to living out the spirit of Jubilee not only within our walls but also in our communities. One of the most heartfelt expressions of this mission has been our monthly outreach to provide food for the poor.

Rooted in the biblical tradition, the Year of Jubilee is a time for release, restoration, and renewal. It is a year where burdens are lifted, debts forgiven, and the love of God is made visible through acts of kindness and sacrifice. In that spirit, our church family has come together to serve those who face daily hunger and hardship.

Each month, volunteers from across our congregation gather to prepare, pack, and distribute food to those in need, both in our neighbourhoods and beyond. This is not just about giving meals; it is about offering dignity, hope, and a reminder that no one is forgotten. As Jesus said in Matthew 25:35, "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat..."

Through this program, we've not only nourished bodies but also built relationships. We've listened to stories, prayed with strangers, and seen firsthand how small acts of generosity can lead to great transformation. Children have offered their time packing care bags, elders have cooked meals with love, and families have come together to serve others as one.

This initiative is more than charity, it is worship in action. It is the Gospel made tangible. And it is a vital reminder that Jubilee is not just a celebration, it is a responsibility to lift up the lowly and embrace those on the margins with open hearts.
As we continue this sacred journey through the Year of Jubilee, may we remain faithful to our calling to feed, to serve, and to love. May every loaf of bread we give be a sign of the Bread of Life who sustains us all.

Let us not grow weary in doing good, for in due season, we shall reap, if we do not give up (Galatians 6:9).

Jubilee 2025

The cross of Christ is the hope that cannot ever be abandoned because we are always in need of it, especially in the most difficult moments.

The Cross, in the shape of a sail, is transformed into an anchor that imposes itself over the waves in motion. A universal symbol of Hope.

The figures represent humanity from the four corners of the World. They are embracing each other to illustrate the solidarity between the peoples, as the first holds onto the cross.

The rough sea is a reminder of the difficulties of the pilgrimage of life. Often, personal events as well as those of the world, press on us more intensely, demanding a greater hope.
