Sr.Jyothi Kudumala ----- Ghana Missionary shares…….

As I reflect on my missionary experience in Ghana, I am reminded of Jesus' call to his disciples: "He appointed twelve that they might be with him and that he might send them out to preach" (Mark 3:14). My journey as a missionary in Ghana has been transformative, beautiful, and life-changing.

Living in Ghana was an incredible experience. The land of gold welcomed me with warm-hearted people, rich culture, and a deep sense of community. I am grateful to our former Provincial Superior, Rev. Sr. Mukta Xess, and her team for encouraging me to take on this mission.

As I settled into my new life, I was filled with curiosity, excitement, and a hint of fear. But trusting in the Lord who called me, I embarked on this journey. The challenges were real – health issues, cultural adjustments, and food differences. Yet, I found solace in the Word of God: "Save me, O Lord, and I shall be saved; heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed" (Jeremiah 17:14).

In Ghana, I experienced the power of faith and community. Despite the challenges, I witnessed people with unwavering hope and trust in God. My experience deepened my understanding of faith and encouraged me to exercise it in difficult situations.

As a missionary, I learned to be resourceful, adaptable, and open to new experiences. I discovered the value of human connection and the importance of living in the present moment. Ghana formation was unique and awe-inspiring, with a focus on discussion, debate, and questioning.

For me, being a missionary in Ghana was an eye-opening experience.

It taught me that:

M – Missionary stands for Matthew, symbolizing humanity.
I – Instrument in the hands of God.
S – Sent by the Lord.
S – Service with an integrated heart.
I – Integrated with God and people.
O – Optimistic in the face of challenges.
N – Noble-minded and selfless.
A – Available to God and others.
R – Reinforced by God's love and encouragement.
Y – You are a unique person, and God needs you.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our Provincial Superior, Rev. Sr. Pauline Nusi, and her council for giving me this opportunity to share my missionary experience.

Our founder Fr.Mathias Wolff landed his ‘cubs ‘in the land teeming with plenty of prey, to work like devouring wolves for the salvation of souls”.

My Experience with the LGBTQ+ Community at Ishvani Kendra, Pune

I feel deeply grateful to have participated in the National Conference, "Gender and Sexual Minorities in India: A Synodal Approach to Pastoral Care and Social Inclusion," held at Ishvani Kendra, Pune, from October 19-22, 2024. This conference brought together over 250 participants from various Catholic congregations, dioceses, and NGOs, including 80 LGBTQ+ community members.

I extend my sincere thanks to our Superior General and Council for this enriching opportunity. The conference's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet" (Mt 22:9), resonated deeply, emphasizing the need for timely and necessary dialogue, love, and compassion to foster inclusivity.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us, "People with homosexual tendencies must be treated with respect, compassion, and sensitivity" (CCC #2358). This message of inclusivity challenged me to accompany and empower marginalized communities, fostering a more inclusive and compassionate environment.

Through vibrant interactions and powerful testimonies, I gained valuable insights into the lives of gender and sexual minority persons. I realized the urgent need for the Church to journey together in solidarity, embracing inclusivity, active listening, empathy, and compassion.

Key takeaways from the conference include:

1. Listening attentively to silenced voices.
2. Using gender-affirming language.
3. Embracing unconditional love and solidarity.
4. Identifying and supporting GSM community members in parishes.
5. Fostering inclusion in celebrations, decision-making, and sacraments.
6. Facilitating awareness and capacity building.
7. Supporting GSM individuals in employment and livelihoods.
8. Establishing safe spaces for GSM individuals.

I resolve to commit myself to exploring ways to empower the laity, clergy, religious, and hierarchy to engage in further social and spiritual conversations, awareness training, and full pastoral and social inclusion of GSM community members.

In conclusion, I pray for perseverance and innovative ways to be Jesus-like, inviting everyone to the banquet. I thank God for opening my mind and heart to accept the LGBTQIA+ community, recognizing they are created in God's image and likeness, deserving of respect, dignity, and inclusivity.

I will strive to make this community inclusive in our activities, institutions, and society, with the cooperation of our General Council and Provincial Council.

"Spreading Christmas Joy and New Year Hope"

The message of Bethlehem is indeed "good news of great joy" (Lk 2:10). This joy is not fleeting happiness or superficial entertainment, but a profound joy that makes us great. It's the promise of being born for heaven, embracing our shortcomings, and receiving the gift of hope.

Jesus, our brother, has come to make his Father our Father, revealing God's tender love. As the Only-Begotten Son, he gives us "power to become children of God" (Jn 1:12). This joy consoles our hearts, renews our hope, and bestows peace

As we celebrate the birth of Jesus, we pray that he inspires:

- Political authorities and persons of good will to resolve conflicts, combat poverty, reduce inequality, and address migration issues.

- Us to be the voice of the voiceless, including innocent children, the unemployed, and migrants.

As we approach the Jubilee year, may this season be an opportunity for:

- Conversion of hearts
- Rejection of war and embracing peace
- Joyfully responding to the Lord's call to bring good news, bind up the broken-hearted, and proclaim liberty.

Timeless Wisdom from the Hearts of Sisters – JMJ Shanthinilayam

May the Babe of Bethlehem bless you with unwavering faith, guiding your steps, illuminating your path, and filling your heart with compassion and love in the New Year. Consecrated life is a treasure trove of wisdom, gained through years of devotion, prayer, and service. While ministry and social justice are vital, the wealth of wisdom that sisters accumulate is equally precious. Here are some gems of wisdom shared by sisters, offering insights into their spiritual lives and commitment to their calling:

1. The Power of Listening: "To listen without reacting. It meant breathing, being silent, and not getting caught up in other people's reality or emotions."

2. Faithfulness Over Institution: "The important thing is not to save the institution but to be faithful to your calling."

3. Spirit of Prayer and Service: "To always keep alive the spirit of prayer, gentle service to all without exception, and the affection shown to sisters through various forms and details."

4. The Guiding Light of Conscience: "A well-formed conscience is the stronghold where only God and I, and those whom I let in, enter. There is no better guide than it to live an authentic fidelity."

May these words of wisdom inspire and guide you on your own spiritual journey.

Mission and missionaries Updates

We are grateful for the recent visits from our sisters serving abroad.

● Sr. Jyothi Kudumala returned to Ghana on December 11, after a refreshing home visit, retreat, and community visits.

● Sr. Madhu Mamta Tirkey departed for Germany on December 10, following a rejuvenating holiday and spiritual renewal in India.

Both sisters were thrilled to reunite with their mission communities.

As we bid them farewell, we pray for God's continued blessings and renewed fervour in their ministries.

New Mission Frontier:

We congratulate Sr. Sowmya Salibindla on her new assignment in Texas, USA! As she embarks on this exciting journey, we wish her God's guidance, wisdom, and blessings. May she quickly adapt to the local culture, traditions, and community, and may her presence be a blessing to all she serves.

My 3-Month Journey in San Antonio, USA

I am deeply grateful to our Congregation for entrusting me with the mission to serve in the USA. As I reflect on my initial three months in San Antonio, Texas, I am filled with a sense of wonder and awe.

Settling into Life in San Antonio

My fellow sisters and I reside in a rented accommodation in the heart of San Antonio, where the cost of living is remarkably high. Despite the challenges, we have settled into a comfortable routine, adhering to a structured timetable that balances spiritual activities, community life, and personal responsibilities.

Encountering the Local Culture

The people of San Antonio have warmly welcomed us, demonstrating remarkable love, generosity, and faith. Their lives are deeply rooted in spirituality, and we have been inspired by their reverence for God. We have also had the opportunity to share our Indian culture with the local community, fostering meaningful connections and exchanges.

Our Mission and Ministry

We are blessed to live directly across from the parish church, which serves a vibrant community of 1,600 families. This proximity allows us to actively participate in Masses and other spiritual activities. As part of our mission, we are undergoing a comprehensive three-phase training program to become educators, guided by the Mother Cabrini Centre.

Evangelization Efforts

Every Tuesday, we extend our support to migrants by preparing and distributing food in collaboration with Hope Ministry. This initiative embodies the essence of service and compassion, touching lives in a meaningful way.

Conclusion

As I navigate this new chapter in my life, I am filled with gratitude for the opportunity to serve in the USA. I am confident that, with God's grace and your prayers, we will fulfil our mission and live a witnessing life as JMJ sisters.

May God bless our endeavours and guide us on this journey.

"Go and make disciples of all nations; baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Remember, I will be with you till the end of life" [Mt: 28:19, 20]. The mandate of Jesus, accepted and lived literally by our venerable Founder Fr. Mathias Wolff S.J., was passed on to our early sisters. It has come so powerfully and seriously to the heart of every JMJ sister, that for most JMJs their motivation for becoming a JMJ is to involve in Catechetical and Evangelical work.
